MINOR CHILDREN	§	COLLIN COUNTY, TEXAS

TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER AND ORDER SETTING HEARING

The application of Respondent, Kelly Long, for temporary restraining orders was presented to the Court today. The children the subject of this suit are Sophie Long, Jack Long, and Lucas Long. Petitioner is Michael Long.

The Court examined the pleadings and affidavit of Respondent and finds that Respondent is entitled to a temporary restraining order and that unless Petitioner is immediately restrained from the commission of the acts prohibited below, Petitioner will commit those acts before notice of the hearing on temporary injunction can be served and a hearing had.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the clerk of this Court issue a temporary restraining order restraining Petitioner, and Petitioner t is immediately restrained, from:

Disturbing the peace of the children or of another party.

Withdrawing the children from enrollment in the school or day-care facility where the children are presently enrolled.

Hiding or secreting the children from Respondent.

Making disparaging remarks regarding Respondent or Respondent's family in the presence or within the hearing of the children.

Discussing any litigation concerning the child in the presence or within hearing of the children.

Consuming alcohol within the 12 hours before or during the period of possession of or access to the children.

Canceling, altering, failing to renew or pay premiums on, or in any manner affecting the level of coverage that existed at the time this suit was filed of, any health or dental insurance policy insuring the children.

This restraining order is effective immediately and shall continue in force and effect until further order of this Court or until it expires by operation of law. This order shall be binding on Petitioner; on Petitioner's agents, servants, and employees; and on those persons in active concert or participation with them who receive actual notice of this order by personal service or otherwise. The requirement of a bond is waived.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the clerk shall issue notice to Petitioner, Michael Long, to appear, and Respondent is ORDERED to appear in person, and to furnish information sufficient to accurately identify Respondent's net resources and ability to pay child support and to bring with him tax returns for the past two years, a financial statement substantially in the form and detail prescribed by the Texas Family Law Practice Manual (3d ed.), form 4-2, and pay stubs for the past three months. IT IS ORDERED that Respondent shall appear Via zoom: 927 1629 7111 before this Court via zoom on 8/20/2020 at 1:00 pm. M. The purpose of the hearing is to determine whether, while this case is pending:

The preceding temporary restraining order should be made a temporary injunction pending final hearing.

The additional temporary injunction prayed for should be granted.

Petitioner should be required to remove all social media posts mentioning this case and the children the subject of this suit immediately. Respondent requests that he be permanently enjoined from positing about this case or the children the subject of this suit.

Petitioner should be ordered to provide support for the children, including the payment of children support and medical and dental support in the manner specified by the Court, while this case is pending.

Petitioner should be appointed temporary possessory conservator of the children.

The Court should order reasonable periods of electronic communication between the child and Petitioner to supplement Petitioner's periods of possession of the children.

The primary residence of the children should be restricted to Collin and contiguous counties.

Awarding Respondent the exclusive right to enroll the children in school.

Petitioner should be enjoined from removing the children beyond Collin and contiguous counties, acting directly or in concert with others.

Petitioner should be denied access to the children or, alternatively, the Court should render a possession order providing that Petitioner's periods of visitation be continuously supervised.

The Court should require visitation by Petitioner to be supervised by a visitation center or independent organization until the Court finds under section 153.501 of the Texas Family Code that supervised visitation is no longer necessary.

Petitioner or any person acting on Petitioner's behalf should be enjoined from disrupting or removing the children from the school or childcare facility in which the child is enrolled or approaching the child at any location other than a site designated for supervised visitation.

The Court should order passport and travel controls, including controls that prohibit Petitioner and any person acting on Petitioner's behalf from removing the child from Texas or the United States and require Petitioner to surrender any passport issued in the children's names, including any passport issued in the name of both Petitioner and the child.

The Court should order the preparation of a child custody evaluation regarding the circumstances and condition of the child, the parties, and the residence of any person requesting conservatorship of, possession of, or access to the child and any issue or question relating to the suit at the request of the Court before or during the evaluation process.

The Court should order the psychological evaluation of Michael Long.

The Court should order the parties to attend a parent education and family stabilization course.

The Court should appoint a parenting coordinator or facilitator.

The Court should appoint an attorney ad litem to provide legal services for the children.

The Court should order the parties to participate in an alternative dispute resolution process before trial of this matter.

The Court should order Respondent to produce copies of income tax returns for tax year 2017-2019, a financial statement, and current pay stubs by a date certain.

The Court should order Petitioner to execute all necessary releases required by Respondent to obtain any discovery allowed by the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure.

The Court should order Petitioner to execute all necessary releases pursuant to the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) and 45 C.F.R. section 164.508 to permit Respondent to obtain health-care information regarding the children.

The Court should order Petitioner to execute for all health-care providers of the children an authorization for disclosure of protected health information to Petitioner pursuant to the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) and 45 C.F.R. section 164.508.

The Court should order Petitioner to designate Respondent as a person to whom protected health information regarding the children may be disclosed whenever Respondent executes an authorization for disclosure of protected health information pursuant to the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) and 45 C.F.R. section 164.508.

The Court should order Respondent to pay reasonable interim attorney's fees and expenses.

The Court should order a pretrial conference to simplify the issues in this case and determine the stipulations of the parties and for any other matters the Court deems appropriate.

The Court should make all other and further orders that are pleaded for or that are deemed necessary for the safety and welfare of the children.
